Agreement, the FY21 Agreement and the FY22 Agreement, the “Agreements”). The FY23 Agreement is set to expire on June 30, 2023.

6. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Nixon has provided copies of the Agreements to the Treasury and AAFAF.

7. Nixon’s hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Nixon fairly for the work of its attorneys and professionals and are disclosed in the Agreements.

8. Pursuant to PREPA’s certified fiscal plan, PREPA is required to separate its transmission and distribution (“T&D”) and generation functions and transfer operation and maintenance responsibilities to third-party, professional operators, leveraging private sector management, experience, and expertise to effectively deliver reliable electricity to Puerto Rico’s residents.

9. As to the T&D system, the Puerto Rico Transmission and Distribution System Operation and Maintenance Agreement and the Puerto Rico Transmission and Distribution System Supplemental Terms Agreement were entered on June 22, 2022 (the “LUMA T&D Agreements”), between, among others, PREPA, LUMA Energy, LLC and LUMA Energy ServCo, LLC (collectively, “LUMA”). (“P3A”) and will work towards ensuring a timely and successful transition once the P3A completes the selection process.

12. Nixon is a nationally recognized bond counsel firm with more than 30 years of experience in all areas of public finance. Its Public Finance practice is one of the largest in the nation with more than 40 public finance and tax attorneys. The firm consistently ranks among the top bond counsel, underwriters’ counsel, and disclosure counsel firms in the nation.

13. Nixon has advised, and will continue to, advise the Oversight Board on optimal tax structures for PREPA’s restructuring and transformation of its legacy generation and T&D assets pursuant to PREPA’s certified fiscal plans. In this capacity, Nixon is engaged to provide tax-exempt bond law analysis, render opinions related to federal tax issues and prepare tax-related documentation and disclosure, among other things.

14. As of this date, Nixon has delivered three legal opinions in connection with the LUMA T&D Agreements and expects to deliver additional legal opinions with respect to the creation of one or more affiliates of PREPA to which PREPA would transfer all or a portion of its electric generation facilities.

15. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Nixon hereby seeks an allowance of $33,837.00 as compensation for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period in connection with such professional services.

16. Nixon’s itemized time records for attorneys and professionals performing services for the Oversight Board during the Compensation Period is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

17. During the Compensation Period, Nixon billed the Oversight Board for time expended by its attorneys and professionals based on Nixon’s hourly rate for each attorney and professional as detailed in Schedule 2 of the summary of this Application.

Estimated Hearing Date: Next Omnibus Hearing Date or an earlier date as ordered by the Court
Objection Deadline: August 24, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time)

18. The fees charged by Nixon are in accordance with the firm's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period and are appropriate for complex securities and tax advantage financing matters. The rates and rate structure reflect that such complex matters typically involve great complexity, high stakes, and intense time pressures. Nixon submits that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services provided to the Oversight Board.

19. The services for which Nixon is requesting approval of the Court were performed for the Oversight Board as representative of PREPA. In connection with the matter covered by this Application, Nixon received no payment and no promises of payment for services rendered, or to be rendered, from any source other than the Debtors. There is no agreement or understanding between Nixon and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation received for services rendered under the Agreements.

20. Sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA provide for interim compensation of professionals and govern the Court's award of such compensation. 48 U.S.C. §§ 2176-2177. Section 316 of PROMESA provides that a court may award a professional person employed by the Debtors or the Oversight Board under PROMESA "(1) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and (2) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 48 U.S.C. § 2176(a).

21. Section 316 of PROMESA also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded ... the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

22. As noted above, the professional services object of this Application were necessary and beneficial to the Oversight Board as representative of PREPA.
